I DARE YOU AWARD

The “I Dare You Award” national leadership award is presented each year by the American Youth Foundation in cooperation with principals, counselors, 4-H agents, and other organizations across the country. The award was first offered in 1941 by the late William H Danforth, who challenged young people to achieve their highest potential and to influence others through lives of service. The award takes its name from the book, “I Dare You!” written by Mr. Danforth, in which he commends the balanced life of mental, physical, social, and spiritual development as the backbone of leadership. Each participant will receive a copy of the book and a certificate of recognition.
