Fair Rules:

1. All exhibits must be the property of bona fide Brown County 4-H or FFA members. All animals/livestock must be owned by May 1, 2025.
2. All FFA members must turn in a consent to show form by March 1, 2025, and follow all 4-H tagging and weighing dates to be eligible to show.
3. All animals are subject to examination by the exhibition staff or their representatives and shall be free of clinical signs of infectious or contagious disease.
4. In the 4-H & FFA division, each participant shall receive a purple, blue, red, or white ribbon. A purple ribbon exhibit shall qualify for the Kansas State Fair if age requirements are met and class requirements are available. For any rule that is not followed, the ribbon will be lowered one ribbon color by a Superintendent.
5. All Exhibits: May only be entered in a class in which a 4-Her is enrolled, except for open classes and pets. The item must be made in the current year.
6. Applying for exceptions to any of the rules and regulations should be made to the Fair Board by June 20, 2025.
7. Winners must be a blue ribbon or higher to be eligible for the top prize.
8. Each exhibitor is expected to take care of their own entry. In case of more than one class entry or sickness, another Brown County 4-H or FFA member may be secured to show, providing the substitute is approved by the Supt. of the department. We encourage the 4-Her to be present at weigh-in to ensure they are entered in the proper class.
9. Dress for livestock exhibitors: Unless stated otherwise, all livestock exhibitors are to be dressed in blue or black jeans and gray shirts with a 4-H or FFA emblem or small club or county emblem of at least 2" in size on the breast pocket area. All shirts must be either short-sleeved or long-sleeved, not sleeveless. Failure to do so will result in forfeiture of ribbon premium money. Read for specifics under each species.
10. There are limits on the number of entries for livestock and animals. They are: Beef-3 steers & 3 heifers; Bucket Calf-1; Sheep-3 market & 3 breeding; Meat Goats-3 market & 3 breeding; Dairy Goats- 3 Market & 3 breeding; Swine- 3 market & 3 breeding; Pets-3 entries per class; Poultry-8 entries; Rabbits- 10 entries; Dog & Horse-1 per class but may have more than 1 in show.
11. Grooming and fitting of livestock during the fair is encouraged to be done by the club member, but other family and friends may help.
12. First-time showmen in showmanship will be eligible for a "Novice" Award for participation.
13. Livestock Educational Exhibit – The contest is designed to promote and educate the public on the various aspects of each livestock project or enterprise. Sizes for the project may range from posters to displays no larger than 4'x4'. The 4-Her is responsible for entering their exhibit with the proper livestock superintendent. These exhibits will be displayed in the livestock areas. It must be a new exhibit each year.
14. There will be no livestock insurance.
15. Under Kansas law, there is no liability for an injury to or the death of a participant in domestic animal activities resulting from the inherent risks of domestic animal activities, pursuant to sections 1- 4 of KSA 60-208. You are assuming the risk of participating in this domestic animal activity.
16. 4-Hers must be enrolled in 4-H and have the $15 State 4-H Participation fee paid by May 1, 2025, to show at the Brown County Free Fair in 2025.
17. Age Divisions: JR– up to 9 years old, Int.– 10-13 years old & SR 14 & up.

DOG

Mindy Young, Superintendent

Rules-1. Awards & Champions will be determined by points using State 4-H Dog Show score sheets and judged by a Kansas 4-H certified Dog Judge. In the event of a tie, the judge will determine the winner.

2. The State 4-H Dog Show immunization record (MG-34 revised) must be completed for each dog entered at the 4-H Dog Show.

3. Entrants will be dropped one ribbon color if the dress code is not followed. Required attire: Showmanship-dress clothes. No heels, open-toed shoes, or flip-flops are allowed for any event.

Obedience, Rally Obedience, and Agility Classes- A gray shirt with a 4-H emblem on the chest, dark slacks or dark shorts, jeans or jean shorts, and soft-soled shoes, such as athletic shoes.

4. More than one(1) dog can be entered in the show by the 4-Her, but only one(1) dog per class.

5. 4-Hers may enter a class with a higher level of skill but cannot regress past prior accomplishments with the same dog.

6. Baiting your dog with food, toys, squeakers, or other training devices is not allowed in the show ring.

7. For all classes, bring dogs into and out of the ring on a leash. Keep dogs on leash when receiving awards.

8. Show leashes will be used for Showmanship classes.

9. Obedience classes are required to wear a well-fitting slip, buckle, or martingale collar of leather, chain, or fabric and a 6-foot leash of fabric or leather. There shall be no objects such as tags, ornaments, or decorations hanging from the collars.

10. Agility classes are required to have well-fitting buckle collars (quick-release snap is preferred) and a short leash. There shall be no objects such as tags, ornaments, or decorations hanging from the collars.

11. Dogs must be at least 12 months old to compete in 4-H Agility.

12. The individual winners of Junior, Intermediate, and Senior classes will return to the ring and be judged together to determine the Dog Showmanship Overall Grand Champion.

Agility

Scoring is determined by deducting all of the running, handler, and time fault points from the total course value of 200 points.

The actual running time of the team is compared to the pre-determined course time. Running time faults are charged if it exceeds the allotted course time. Faults will be used to break ties.

All Kansas State Fair Agility classes I, II, and III are done off-leash. Pre-Agility is for local shows only, and all obstacles are to be done on leash.

SHEPHERD'S LEAD

The object of these classes is to present sheep most attractively, to improve the image of sheep, and to give spectators an opportunity to view well-groomed sheep at halter by attractively dressed contestants wearing wool garments. Entrants may purchase or construct their own garment, which should consist of at least 60% wool, exclusive of accessories.

Judging will be based on the attractiveness and suitability of the garment to the contest, the contestant's artistry and appearance, and the contestant's ability to control and present the sheep at halter. The sheep may not be blanketed during the contest; only the head or neck may be decorated. Males and females are judged separately.

1. Entries are open to any Brown County 4-H member or future member.
2. Sheep used in Lead must be entered in a market or breeding class at the Brown County Fair.
3. Sheep should be conditioned, fitted, and trained to show at halter.

4. Each entrant will submit a provided form of 100 words or less, which must include: a Description of the sheep & a Description of the garment

5. The contestant's garments will be judged according to Fashion Revue standards.

FASHION REVUE

Loagan Stoller, Superintendent

1. PURPOSE – To demonstrate the knowledge and skill gained by the 4-Her in relation to choosing clothing that is pleasing to the wearer, appropriate to the occasion, and worth the money spent and to show the development of poise, correct posture, and good grooming habits.

2. Participants will fill out a cost-per-wear form, a buymanship and/or construction revue scorecard for each outfit they make or buy, along with a fashion revue script. Write it exactly how you want it read as you walk. These forms are located on the K-State Research Brown County website. Print, fill out, and bring with you. There is also a Fashion Revue schedule to help you know when you should be there prepared and signed up.

3. There will be two separate contests – one for those who have purchased their garments and one for those who constructed them.

4. All participants MUST participate by wearing their outfits and presenting them to the judge. When you arrive for your fashion revue scheduled judging, you will be dressed with hair done and accessories included. Read over your scorecard to see what the Fashion Revue Judge will look for when you do your outfit modeling.

Constructed Garments Revue

1. The 4-Her must make the outer garment. A sweater, blouse, or other accessories may be purchased. For the Senior Division, the majority of the outfit must be constructed. A sweater, blouse, or shirt not worn as an outer garment can be purchased or made.
2. Two garments per phase may be modeled. Those with two outfits to model will first model the one that is more casual. The second outfit will be modeled with the rest of the group with only one outfit.
3. Those participating in this contest must enter their garments for construction judging and model it in the Public Fashion Revue. If a 4-Her has more than one garment, a choice will be made as to which outfit will be worn at the Public Revue.
4. A Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion will be chosen in the Senior, Intermediate, and Junior Divisions (Seniors are 14 or over as of January 1, Intermediates are 11-13, and Juniors are 7-10). Champions will be announced at the Public Style Revue.
5. The Senior Grand Champion may represent Brown County at the State Fair.

7. Decisions about all items to be auctioned will be made by the judges assigned to the Foods & Nutrition project for the Brown County Fair. Judges may use items awarded a blue ribbon if no suitable purple foods are available in a particular food auction category.
8. The 4-H members who auction items will receive half of the auction premium, and the other half will go to the 4-H Council.

Note: Receiving a purple on a food item does not guarantee that a 4-Her's item will be on the auction. 4-Hers whom the judges choose to auction one of their foods will be notified by the Food Superintendents prior to the auction.

Food & Nutrition

1. All classes of food preparation will be judged by consultation between the 4-Her and the Judge.
2. You must be enrolled in the food project. ALL exhibits need a recipe and an entry tag. The recipe MUST be taped to the top of the bag. The recipe MUST stay with the item even after judging. If a recipe is missing, the ribbon will go down one placing.
3. All perishable food, without refrigeration, will be kept by the 4-Her after judging. All other food will remain and become the property of 4-H Council. Recipe files, educational exhibits, and gift packages will be left on display during the week of the fair.
4. For food safety purposes, any food with custard and cream cheese type fillings and frostings, flavored oils, "canned" bread, or food requiring refrigeration will be judged perishable. Refer to K-State Research & Extension Publication, 4-H 712 Food Safety Recommendations for Acceptable Fair Exhibits, for information to help you make informed, safe food exhibit decisions.
5. If 4-Her is old enough (9 years and older, 4-H age), any entry (perishable or non-perishable) that receives a purple ribbon is eligible for the State Fair, but only one non-perishable entry per 4-Her may go to the State Fair.
6. Yeast & Sourdough Breads and Miscellaneous Divisions may be entered by any 4-Her enrolled in any level. Yeast & Sourdough Breads may only be entered in the Yeast or Sourdough

Bread Division but will be judged with all foods.

7. Dried foods are to be exhibited in the Food Preservation Division.

8. NO foods made with alcohol will be judged.

9. Ensure your Frosting is considered Non-Perishable using K-State Publication MF 3544. (Should be greater than 65% sugar)

Displaying items for judging

All unfrosted cakes should be exhibited upright with crust showing, except those made with special designs such as Bundt cakes. These should have top crust sides down and be unfrosted. Angel food cake should be flat side on the plate and rough side up. Only single-layered or other-layered cakes may be frosted. All other cakes, including Bundt, angel, chiffon, etc., are not to be frosted. Coffee cakes that can be, should be removed from the pan and exhibited upright; otherwise, exhibit in a disposable container. Use a 5" to 8" plain white paper plate or covered cardboard cut to fit the size of the product. Food should be on a flat surface. Do not let the curve of the paper plate reshape your food. Snack mixes should be exhibited in a disposable white bowl or plate in a plastic bag.

To display cookies, brownies, etc. – (smaller items) – put 3 on a plate.

Put product in a clear plastic bag or cover with clear plastic wrap.

Pies and cobblers should be in nonreturnable pans. Glass pie plates/dishes may be used but will NOT be returned.

Attach the recipe with one entry tag. If the recipe is missing, the ribbon will go down one placing. All items entered incorrectly will be lowered by 1 ribbon placing.

Examples of Non-Perishable Foods – Any food item that does not need refrigeration or is not a fresh product. (Examples: cookies, cakes, fruit pies, breads, muffins, quick breads, etc.)

Examples of Perishable Foods – Any food item with custard & dairy-based fillings & frostings. (Examples-fresh fruit or vegetable products, meat products, raw eggs, dips, salads, casseroles, cream pies, “canned” bread or bread or cakes in a jar.)

You may bring 4 perishable & 4 non-perishable entries.
